

SciTech Campus: Services available by appointment. Contact Disability Services to schedule

Disability Services Testing Center at SciTech Campus

Testing hours are by appointment only, a 1 week minimum advance notice is necessary.

Fairfax Campus Disability
Services Testing Center
Email: dstests@gmu.edu

Disability Services

About Disability Services

Disability Services has continual enrollment and provides accommodations for documented disabilities at any point in a student's academic career.

Who We Serve

Disability Services proudly serves individuals with physical, learning, psychological, and other disabilities. Specifically, Disability Services assists people with the following documented disabilities, including but not limited to:

- Allergy-related
- Anxiety
- Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity
- Disorder (ADHD)
- Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)
- Blind/low vision
- Deaf/hard of hearing
- Depression
- Learning disabilities
- Medical-related
- Mobility issues
- Neurological impairments
- Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder
- Speech and language impairments
- Temporary disabilities (e.g. brokenbones, concussions)

Services

Accommodations are developed based on individual student needs and documentation.

- Sample academic accommodations:
 - Extended time on tests/assignments
 - Interpreting services
 - Note-taking services
 - Reduced course-load
 - Scribes
- Other accommodations:
 - Foreign language exemptions
 - Housing-related
 - Meal plan modifications
 - Patriot Lift referrals
 - Quantitative reasoning exemptions

For more information or to Make an appointment

Call Disability Services to schedule a confidential appointment or to speak with a specialist.